Across the nation, there is a shortage of election workers, Anchorage is no exception. We have many capable election workers who have been dedicated for many years however encouraging the younger generation to participate is the only way we can continue to produce Election Results. Each year, we recruit to fill nearly 600 positions to work at precincts on Election Day. This PSA encourages citizens to consider becoming an election worker.

Thank you for your service.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline C. Duke, CMC
