

PRESS RELEASE

2/6/2017

Amanda K. Moser, Deputy Clerk
Barbara A. Jones, Municipal Clerk

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Working as an Election Worker is a great way to connect with the Anchorage community; it is civic engagement that allows you to meet your neighbors. To ensure timely and accurate election results, the Municipality of Anchorage recruits over 600 election workers to staff 122 polling places.

The Anchorage Municipal Clerk's Office is seeking individuals who are interested in working at a precinct for the 2017 Regular Municipal Election. Consider challenging your volunteer or civic organization to participate in this community event.

On April 4, 2017 Election Workers are needed throughout the entire Municipality of Anchorage from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

The requirements for Election Workers are as follows:

- Must be a registered voter in Anchorage (register at www.elections.alaska.gov);
- Must be able to remain non-partisan while at the polling place;
- Must attend a paid mandatory training session;
- Must be able to organize and accurately process paperwork; and
- Must be able to follow job instructions accurately;

This position pays $9.50 per hour for hours worked on both Training and Election Day. Please consider becoming an election worker.

For information, please go to www.muni.org/elections, call 907-243-VOTE, or email elections@muni.org.
