

PRESS RELEASE
SPECIAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION PUBLIC SESSION OF CANVASS TIMELINE

August 16, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Municipal Clerk's Office announces the Election Commission timeline to review the ballot return envelopes for consideration in the final results count of the August 7, 2018 Special Municipal Election. The Public Session of Canvass (and Adoption of the Election Canvass Report) will take place tomorrow, Friday, August 17, 2018 from 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m., or until finished.

Due to the lower volume of ballots for the August 7, 2018 Special Municipal Election, the Election Commission will not need a full afternoon to complete their review.

Ballots sent by mail must be postmarked on or before the Special Election Day and received before the Public Session of Canvass in order to qualify for inclusion in the election tabulation.

The Election Commission's Meeting Schedule for Friday, August 17, 2018 is as follows:

- 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. – Election Commission Worksession
- 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. or until finished – Election Commission Public Session of Canvass (and Adoption of the Election Canvass Report)
 - The Commission will adopt the Election Canvass Report after the Canvass

All Election Commission meetings will be held at the MOA Election Center, 619 East Ship Creek Avenue, Door D entrance.
