The Urban Design Commission may only grant a historic sign designation if the Commission finds that the following (3) prerequisites are satisfied. Each criteria must have a response in as much detail as it takes to explain how your property's sign satisfies the criteria. The burden of proof rests with you. Use additional paper if needed.

1) The sign has been in continuous existence at its present location for not less than forty years and the sign has not been significantly altered. EXPLAIN: 2) The sign is structurally safe or is capable of being made so without substantially altering its historic significance. EXPLAIN: 3) The continued existence of the sign is encouraged and is beneficial to the public good. EXPLAIN:

EXPLAIN:
Additionally, the Commission must find that EITHER of the following is satisfied:
The sign is of exemplary design, craftsmanship, or technology for the period in which it was constructed; uses historic sign materials or means of illumination; and/or is unique in that it demonstrates extraordinary aesthetic quality, creativity or innovation.
EXPLAIN:
The sign is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our community's history. Such a sign contributes to the historical or cultural value of the streetscape and the community at large.
