Chief Fiscal Officer

Description

The Chief Fiscal Officer (CFO) manages the financial activity of the Municipality of Anchorage to provide accurate and timely financial information for strategic planning, budget, management and decision support to the Mayor, elected officials and general public.

Department Services

- Maintain current level of service with the increasing demands placed upon the department
- CFO manages the following:
  - Finance Department
  - Information Technology Department
  - Purchasing Department
  - 49th State Angel Fund
- Development of six-year fiscal plan which focuses on key issues related to present and future public services, fiscal policies, and capital improvement and also presents options of addressing future fiscal requirements.
- Oversee the 49th State Angel Fund (49SAF) Program. The Program was created after the Municipality was awarded a federal allocation of $13.2 million from the State Small Business Credit Initiative (SSBCI). The Program provides funding to early-stage high-growth businesses that show significant economic potential either through direct investment in Anchorage-based businesses or by taking a partnership interest in locally-focused angel or venture capital funds.
