Accomplishment Goal Supported

Under the Anchorage Food Code, the Department is charged with making a reasonable effort to inspect every permitted food establishment at least once per year. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) recommends an inspection frequency of two times per year as a best practice to assure compliance with safe food handling and the prevention of food borne illnesses. There are approximately 1,800 permitted facilities in the municipality. DHHS has 6 environmental health specialists on staff responsible for food facility inspections and other environmental health work including inspections of temporary events, retail marijuana facilities, pools, beauty and barbershops, and other facilities; responding to noise, pest/rodent, hotel mold, smoke/smoking, pesticide application, and other health related public concerns; and plan review of approximately 100 new facilities annually. With the number of permitted facilities and other environmental health duties, double the staff is needed to meet FDA guidelines. At least one additional inspector would add capacity to support inspection frequency and response to food borne illness outbreaks.

PVR Measure WC: Managing Workers' Compensation Claims

Reducing job-related injuries is a priority for the Administration by ensuring safe work conditions and safe practices. By instilling safe work practices, we ensure not only the safety of our employees but reduce the potential for injuries and property damage to the public. The Municipality is self-insured and every injury poses a financial burden on the public and the injured worker's family. It just makes good sense to WORK SAFE.

Results are tracked by monitoring monthly reports issued by the Risk Management Division.
