Measure #6: Number of eligible employees successfully completing the 2012 & 2013 open enrollment on-line without additional instructions or assistance from Employee Relations benefits staff.

Type

Effectiveness

Accomplishment Goal Supported

Leveraging technology to provide employees with self-service access to administrative information and processes

Definition

Measures the effectiveness of on-line enrollment as a self-service tool in terms of the number of on-line open enrollment submissions employees successfully complete without additional assistance from benefits staff.

Data Collection Method

At the end of the open enrollment period, benefits staff will run reports of employee on-line submissions, and will pull data from the open enrollment email and hotline sources to identify any individuals who required assistance in entering benefits data. At the end of the open enrollment period, this number will be subtracted from the total number of successful employee open enrollment benefit registrations made on-line to determine the number successfully completed self-service open enrollment submissions.

Frequency

Reports will be run after the open enrollment has closed. Benefits staff will identify the number of individuals they assisted in completing open enrollment submissions.

Measured By

Benefits staff will pull information from the open enrollment email and hotline voicemail and phone logs, and will run the appropriate reports or lists from PeopleSoft. Totals will be kept by the benefits technician.

Reporting

Benefits staff in charge of open enrollment will retain the data of total, aided and unaided submissions on a word or excel document.

Used By

The Division director, the Plan Administrator and the Benefits staff member in charge of open enrollment will use the statistics to determine whether programming changes and/or further education to employees on the use of the system is necessary to gain the efficiencies expected with the new On-line enrollment system. The results and recommendations will be shared with the Director of Employee Relations, the PeopleSoft IT Group and the Executive Health Committee.

Measure #7: Number of eligible employees with other health care coverage who choose to participate in the Opt-Out Pilot Program.

Type

Effectiveness

Accomplishment Goal Supported

Develop meaningful and cost-effective employee benefit options.

Definition

Measures the attractiveness of the Opt-Out Pilot Program by how many executive and non-represented employees with dual coverage participate in the pilot, and measures the effectiveness of the Opt-Out Pilot Program in cost savings to the MOA and the Municipal health plan.

Data Collection Method

Benefits Staff will:

1. Pull the number of non-represented and executive employees covered under more than one health insurance plan from ODS prior to launching the Opt Out program, and will keep monthly totals thereafter of eligible employees and participants.
2. Run queries/reports on a monthly basis showing the number of Opt Out program participants. This number, when multiplied by the amount of the per-employee municipal health care contribution less the monthly incentive amount will yield the cost savings to the Municipality. Savings to the municipal health plan will be based on the avoided costs of not providing coverage to the employees and dependents who opt-out, and will be based on the dollar claims history for that group for the prior year, less any individual contributions those employees paid for coverage.

Frequency

Queries/Reports will be run or received at the end of each month and annually.

Measured By

Benefits staff will receive the necessary reports from ODS, and will run the appropriate queries or reports in PeopleSoft with guidance from PeopleSoft IT.

Reporting

The Division Director will receive:

1. The reports from Benefits staff regarding the number Opt-out plan participants, amount of the Municipal Health Plan contributions that do not have to be paid for those individuals, incentive payments total, and calculated MOA savings and will save and or transfer the data to a word or excel chart.

2. The reports from Benefits staff regarding the historical annual claims costs of the group of employees/dependent participating in the Opt-Out Pilot program and will transfer that data to a chart.

Used By

The Division, Department Directors and Executive Health Committee will use the information to assess the ongoing value and viability of the pilot program and, including the incentive amount. Determinations will be made based on the information whether to continue, change, discontinue or expand the opt-out pilot program.
