Provide immediate response to public inquiries and notifications of illegal activities (within 72 hours). Create and file reports on the condition of inspected parcels, with emphasis on corrective actions taken. Data will be collected in the parcel file and on inventory data spreadsheet lists by region.

Frequency

Measure #4: Annual foreclosure process: Collection of Delinquent property taxes and assessments.

Type

Effectiveness

Accomplishment Goal

Aggressively manage the annual foreclosure procedure to reduce the number of delinquent tax properties by having owners pay their properties and recoup lost revenue.

Definition

The foreclosure process is initiated annually against real properties which there are delinquent property taxes and assessments from the prior year(s). Properties on which a foreclosure judgment is entered for nonpayment of taxes are held by MOA for the statutory "one year" redemption period. During the redemption period, a party having an interest in the property may redeem the property from the judgment by paying the lien amount applicable under the judgement plus penalty, interest and costs.

Data Collection

The statutory expiration of redemption period process gives the owner, mortgage or lien holders of record the opportunity to redeem the property from a prior year(s) foreclosure judgement by paying the delinquent year(s) tax and/or assessment lien amount applicable under the foreclosure judgement to prevent the property from being deeded to the MOA.

Frequency

The foreclosure process begins annually in February with the last day to pay to prevent foreclosure the day before the Tax Foreclosure Sale in April. Thereafter, the Request for Foreclosure Judgement documents are prepared and filed with the court. Once the judgement is entered the statutory "one year" redemption period commences.

Measured by

Collection is largely dictated by continuous monitoring and additional noticing that ensures property owners are noticed of the foreclosure proceedings.

Reporting

Maintain delinquent property foreclosure reports, property owner and lien-holder foreclosure notice mailing lists, publications and the Petition for Foreclosure and Request for Foreclosure Judgement court documents.

Used by

Real Estate Services and the Municipal Attorney's Office to ensure all statutory foreclosure requirements have been met.

Measure #5: Annual process for taking Clerk's Deed and subsequent sale of deeded property via sealed bid auction.
--

Type

Effectiveness

Accomplishment Goal

Enforce collection to recover delinquent unpaid property taxes and assessments by the statutory expiration of redemption period process and through sale of foreclosed/deed real property by sealed bid auction which returns foreclosed/deeded properties to tax-producing status.

Definition

Recover unpaid taxes and assessments on property deeded to the MOA. RES may sell the property at public sealed bid auction upon approval of the Assembly.

Data Collection

Expiration of Redemption Period occurs for those property taxes and special assessments delinquent for more than one year. Upon issuance of the Clerk's Deed, the property is technically owned by the MOA. Records are prepared for each property to include all documentation relevant to each property beginning with the foreclosure process through the deed process, and ultimately to the repurchase or sale of the foreclosed property.

Frequency

This is a four month annual process. On the first business day of June, a courtesy notice is mailed to delinquent taxpayers regarding the impending expiration of redemption period on foreclosed properties. In mid-July, title reports are ordered for all remaining unredeemed properties. The expiration of redemption period arises during the last week of October.

Measured by

Statistically the MOA takes deed to between ten to thirty properties per year and on average sells one to six properties per year.

Reporting

RES staff maintains expiration of redemption reports, mailings, court documents, repurchase files, and all public auction sale documentation.

Used by

The RES and Municipal Attorney's Office uses these reports to determine and forecast relative progress in tax recovery from year to year.
