2018 Residential Property Tax Exemption Application

Anchorage Municipal Code 12.15.015

Ten percent of the assessed value of owner occupied residential property, up to a maximum of $20,000 of assessed value, shall be exempt from property taxation

Application must be received or postmarked on or before MARCH 15, 2018.

To qualify for this tax exemption:

- The applicant must be the owner of record prior to January 1, 2018;
- Upon initial application, the eligible applicant must have been a resident of the State of Alaska for the entire year of 2017;
- The property must be owned and occupied as the primary residence and permanent place of abode of an eligible applicant for at least 185 days in the year prior to January 1, 2018;
- In each subsequent year, the property must be owned and occupied as the primary residence and permanent place of abode of the eligible applicant for at least 185 days prior to January 1 of each exemption year.
- It is the applicant's responsibility to notify the assessor of any change in ownership, property use, residency, permanent place of abode or other factor affecting qualification for the exemption. Failure to notify may result in loss of the exemption, payment of back taxes, penalties and interest.
- Only one residential exemption may be granted for a property in any assessment year.

It is the property owner's responsibility to insure receipt of the application by the MOA.
