

Municipality of Anchorage

Policy AG.25

Parking Lots Constructed with Fill Over Peat

It has been a common practice in Anchorage to construct parking lots by placing structural fill over organic soils. The Anchorage Grading, Excavation and Fill Code does not specifically address this local practice.

When based on a geotechnical engineer's recommendations and designed by a civil engineer, parking lots may be constructed by placing structural fill over peat.

Ron Thompson, Building Official

Date: April 17, 2006

(Ref: 04-0)