SUBJECT: Tobacco Tax Adjustment for 2022

In accordance with AMC 12.40.010, the excise tax on cigarettes will be 126.1 mills, or $0.1261 per cigarette, $2.52 per pack (rounded), and $25.20 per carton effective January 1, 2022. This represents a change in the mill rate and is calculated as follows:

$(225.049 + 227.258)/2 = 226.154$	Average of 1st and 2nd halves 2020 CPI.
$(232.679 - 226.154)/226.154 = .028852021$	Change to 1st half of current year (2021)
.1226	2021 tobacco excise tax rate.
$\underline{x (1 + .028852021)}$
.1261	2022 tobacco excise tax rate (rounded).

Attached is a copy of the July 2020 Consumer Price Index (CPI-U) report for Anchorage.

As of January 1, 2011, the excise tax on other tobacco products has been 55% of the established wholesale price. This rate will not automatically increase on January 1, 2022. The recent annual data reveals tax on cigarettes accounts for about 83% of total annual tobacco taxes collected by the Municipality.

Notification of the 2022 tax rates will be forwarded to current tobacco tax licensees in the near future. Revised tax return forms showing this new rate will be made available to the taxpayers by Treasury no later than January 10, 2022.
