PROPOSITION 12
CHARTER AMENDMENT

AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.
No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency exception.
No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.

Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

Section 21.06 Private rights; parties; estoppel of sovereign immunity; damages and attorneys fees. (no change.)

CHARTER AMENDMENT
AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.
No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency exception.
No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.
Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

Section 21.06 Private rights; parties; estoppel of sovereign immunity; damages and attorneys fees. (no change.)

CHARTER AMENDMENT

AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.

No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency exception.

No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.

Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

Section 21.06 Private rights; parties; estoppel of sovereign immunity; damages and attorneys fees. (no change.)

PROPOSITION 12
CHARTER AMENDMENT
AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.
No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency exception.
No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private notices. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.
Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

Section 21.06 Private notices; parties; estoppel of sovereign immunity; damages and attorneys fees. (no change.)

PROPOSITION 12
CHARTER AMENDMENT
AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.

No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.

(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency exception.

No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.

(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.

Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void.

Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.

(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

CHARTER AMENDMENT
AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.
No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency exception.
No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.
Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

Section 21.06 Private rights; parties; estoppel of sovereign immunity; damages and attorneys fees. (No change.)

CHARTER AMENDMENT
AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXII, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL POLICE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.
 Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXII, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows: to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal police officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police.
 Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].
Section 21.01. Vehicle code enforcement.
 No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion, may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any person other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 40.05.290(7) (A.S. 40.05.290(5) (A) or (B) or a municipal police officer designated in writing by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the registration of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future. (Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-5-97, § 41)
Section 21.02. Enforced vehicle removal, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency situations.
 No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to the safety of public safety. (Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-5-97, § 42)
Section 21.03. Liability for motor vehicle impound, towing and transportation. (No change)
Section 21.04. Prohibited enforcement and detention of enforcement personnel in person. (deleted administrative enforcement)
 Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law (LAY (SIC)) or code enforcement powers which are currently exercised other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain, with the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such judicial appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as limiting the jurisdiction of courts or presiding justices, judges, the ordinance, or judges that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process. (Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-5-97, § 44)
Section 21.05. Surrender of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change)

AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME
RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE
ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC
VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE
OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.

No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency excision.

No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.

Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

CHARTER AMENDMENT

AMENDMENTS TO MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE HOME RULE CHARTER, ARTICLE XXI, MUNICIPAL VEHICLE CODE ENFORCEMENT STANDARDS, TO AUTHORIZE TRAFFIC VIOLATION ENFORCEMENT BY MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICERS DESIGNATED IN WRITING BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Shall the Municipality of Anchorage Home Rule Charter, Article XXI, Municipal Vehicle Code Enforcement Standards, be amended as follows to authorize traffic violation enforcement by municipal peace officers designated in writing by the Chief of Police?

Amendments are shown with new language in bold and underlined. Language to be deleted is [CAPITALIZED AND IN BRACKETS].

Section 21.01 Vehicle violation enforcement.

No enforcement of any vehicle violation, whether the vehicle is parked or in motion may be performed by the Municipality of Anchorage by any persons other than a regularly sworn police officer who meets the standards set forth in A.S. 18.65.290(7) [A.S. 18.65.290(5)(A) or (B)] or a municipal employee designated in writing as a peace officer by the Chief of Police. Such enforcement includes, but is not limited to, any and all civil or criminal statutes, codes, ordinances or regulations which apply to the regulation of vehicles and which currently exist or may exist in the future.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 1)

Section 21.02 Prohibited vehicle impound, towing and transportation from public streets and emergency excavation.

No vehicle may be impounded, towed, or transported from upon the public streets in the Municipality of Anchorage without the written permission of either the owner or the operator of the vehicle, a valid court order, or unless an impound notice is placed on the vehicle by a police officer or peace officer qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. This shall not prohibit necessary emergency action in the event that a vehicle presents an immediate threat to life or public safety.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 2)

Section 21.03 Liability for improper impound, towing and transportation; private rights. (No change.)

Section 21.04 Prohibited enforcement and delegation of enforcement; enforcement in person; prohibited administrative enforcement.

Enforcement of any part of the present or future state or Anchorage municipal vehicle laws or codes by anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above is prohibited. The Anchorage Assembly may not delegate vehicle related enforcement powers to any agency other than the police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, nor shall they delegate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise such powers to anyone other than police officers or peace officers qualified as set forth in Section 21.01 above. Any and all vehicle law or code enforcement activity by such a police officer or peace officer must be performed in person. Any vehicle law [LAY (SIC)] or code enforcement powers which may currently exist, other than those vested in police officers or peace officers as described in Section 21.01 above, are null and void. Review of all vehicle law and code enforcement within the Municipality of Anchorage shall be, and remain with, the judicial branch of government as described in Article IV of the Alaska Constitution, with such right of appeal as the law provides. This law is not to be construed as defining the jurisdiction of courts or prescribing their rules, rather, this ordinance declares that the Municipality shall not enforce any motor vehicle ordinance or policy by way of administrative process.
(Prop. 3 of 4-15-97 election, effective 6-6-97, § 4)

Section 21.05 Supremacy of municipal vehicle code enforcement standards. (No change.)

Section 21.06 Private rights; parties; estoppel of sovereign immunity; damages and attorneys fees. (no change.)
