

AO 2024-123(S)

An ordinance authorizing the Municipality of Anchorage, Anchorage Water & Wastewater Utility (AWWU) and the Municipality of Anchorage, Anchorage Hydro Power (AHP) to execute and enter into three agreements pertaining to the Municipal Public Water Supply and the Eklutna Hydroelectric Project Fish and Wildlife Program.

*Assembly Worksession
December 12, 2025*

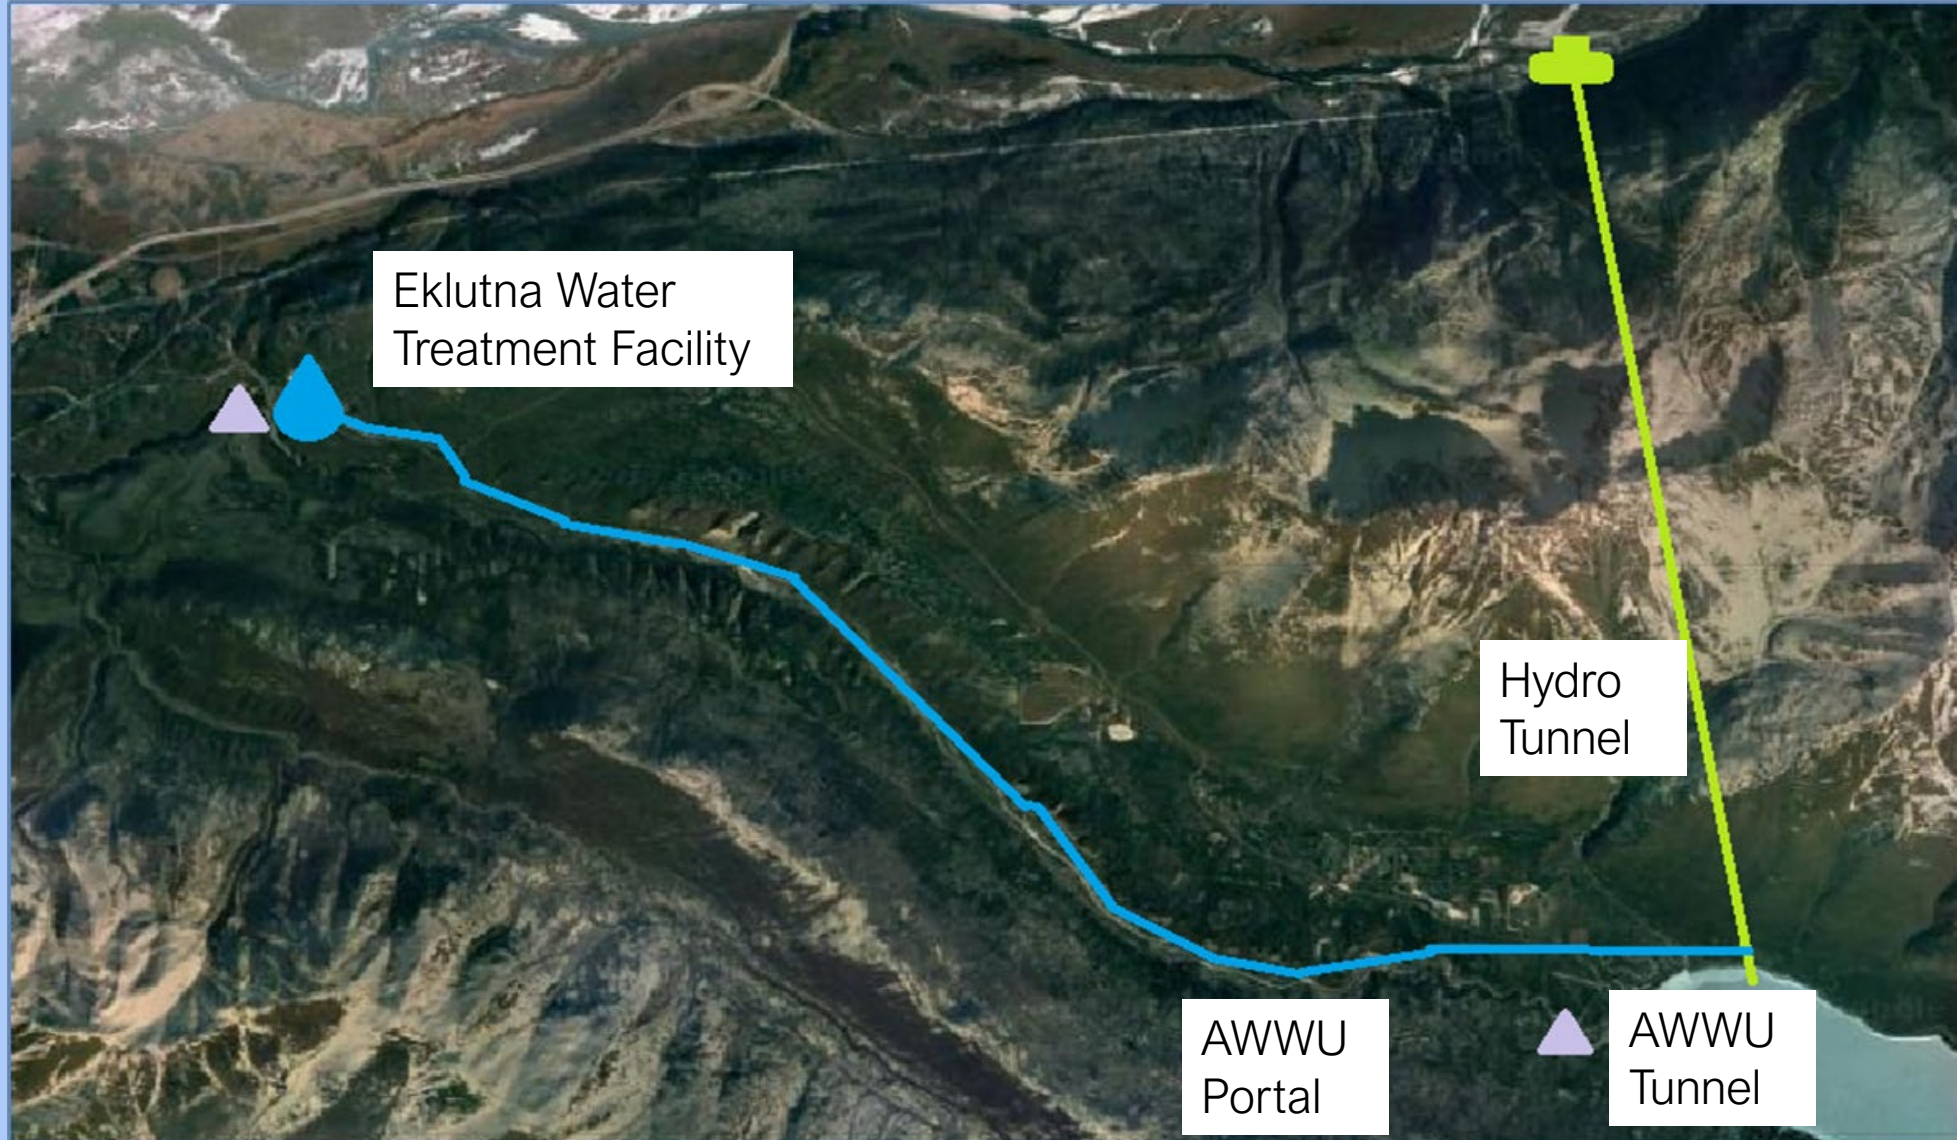

Background

- 1984 Agreement for Public Water Supply and Energy Generation (the 1984 Agreement")
- 1991 Fish & Wildlife Agreement (the "1991 Agreement")
- 2023-2024 Negotiation of contracts
- October 2, 2024 Governor's Decision
- December 3, 2024 - AO 2024-123 introduced
- April 22, 2025 - AO 2024-123(S) referred to Municipal Attorney

Content of Agreements

- Water Facilities Interconnection Agreement
 - The agreement for the AWWU Connection to the Hydro Tunnel, Portal Valve and related facilities
- Long-Term Water Transportation Agreement
 - The agreement to transport the Eklutna Power Owners' water to the Portal Valve using AWWU's pipe
- Water Rights Agreement
 - The replacement of the 1984 Agreement and provisions for future acquisition of priority water rights

System Interconnection

Broader Context

- Voting rights litigation before the Regulatory Commission of Alaska
- Final Fish & Wildlife Program / Pumped Storage Hydropower Study

Questions?