Deputy Municipal Clerk-Elections

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Across the nation, there is a shortage of election workers, and Anchorage is no exception. As the 2014 Regular Municipal Election approaches we want to encourage those who may not have considered this opportunity before to participate. We are currently recruiting for additional workers, so we can continue to produce timely and accurate Election results. Working an Election is a great way to connect with the Anchorage community; it is civic engagement that allows you to meet your neighbors. Challenge your civic organization to participate in this community event. Each year, the Municipality of Anchorage recruits nearly 600 workers for 122 polling places on Election Day. Please consider becoming an election worker.
