WHEREAS, Title 7, Purchasing and Contracts and Professional Services, of the Anchorage Municipal Code currently requires submitting sealed bids of proposals by mail or in person, and does not provide for or authorize submission of responses to solicitations for bids or proposals by electronic means; and

WHEREAS, the purchasing regulations pertaining to grant proposals in the Anchorage Municipal Code of Regulations currently requires submitting grant applications by mail or in person, and also does not provide for or authorize electronic submission; and

WHEREAS, the Purchasing Department and Anchorage Health Department have expressed interest in implementing systems that allow the public to electronically submit documents, including grant proposals and applications, and to protect confidential information and documents received; and

WHEREAS, Alaska state law, AS 09.80.150, in the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, authorizes “government agency[ies] to] send and accept electronic records and electronic signatures to and from other persons and otherwise create, generate, communicate, store, process, use, and rely upon electronic records and electronic signatures” and to determine and specify the manner and format, control processes and procedures, and any other required attributes; and

WHEREAS, the Anchorage Health Department has requested updating the procurement code in response to several respondents to its published solicitations for grant proposals that have expressed a preference for electronic submittal processes available elsewhere, and disfavor with the current limitation to submittal by paper hardy copies mailed or hand delivered; and

WHEREAS, other application, license, or permit submittal procedures administered by the Municipality allow for electronic submission and approval processes; and

WHEREAS, the Assembly, Administration and Purchasing Department desire to improve accessibility, efficiency and convenience for those wishing to do business with the Municipality while at the same time authorizing the means to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of the procurement process; now, therefore,
THE ANCHORAGE ASSEMBLY ORDAINS:

Section 1. Anchorage Municipal Code section 7.10.030 is hereby amended to read as follows (the remainder of the section is not affected and therefore not set out):

7.10.030 - Powers and duties of purchasing officer.

Except as this Code provides otherwise, the purchasing officer shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

H. The director shall, in coordination with the director of the office of equal opportunity, submit an annual report to the assembly and the mayor in the form of a memorandum on EEO contract compliance; [AND]

I. To establish systems allowing electronic submission in response to solicitations under this title, including bids, proposals, and grant applications, and acceptance of electronic records and electronic signatures, provided that the form and type of electronic submission, control processes and procedures, and other attributes shall ensure adequate preservation, disposition, integrity, security, confidentiality and auditability; and

J. Any other authorities and responsibilities which this title assigns the purchasing officer.

(AO No. 79-203, 1-1-80; AO 2023-90(S), § 2, 10-24-23)

Section 2. Anchorage Municipal Code section 7.20.020 is hereby amended to read as follows (the remainder of the section is not affected and therefore not set out):

7.20.020 - Solicitation and acceptance of bids.

*** *** ***

B. Public notice of the invitation for bids shall be published at least 14 days before the last day on which bids will be accepted. Such notice shall also be posted at the municipality’s purchasing office. The contents of the notice shall be sufficient to inform interested readers of the general nature of the supplies, services or construction being procured and the procedure for submitting a bid. The purchasing officer shall mail or otherwise deliver notices to a sufficient number of prospective bidders from a current bidders' [MAILING] list maintained by [IN] the purchasing office to afford equitable opportunity for competition. The failure of any person to receive notice under this subsection shall not affect the validity of any award or contract.

D. Sealed bids shall be designated as such [ON THE OUTER ENVELOPE] and shall be submitted by mail, by electronic means, or in person at the place and no later than the time specified in the invitation for bids. If submitted by mail or in person, bids shall be sealed in an envelope marked as such. Bids not submitted at the proper place, to the proper electronic destination, or within the time specified shall not be opened or considered.
