

MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE
MAYOR DAVE BRONSON

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Memorandum

To: Suzanne LaFrance, Assembly Chair

From: Rebekah Dunfee, Chair of the Youth Advisory Commission

Through: Brice Wilbanks, Office of the Mayor

Date: January 21, 2022

Subject: Youth Representative to the Anchorage Assembly Nominations

Dear Assembly Chair LaFrance,

Pursuant to Anchorage Municipal Code 4.60.275.B.9, the Youth Advisory Commission has voted to nominate a Youth Representative to the Anchorage Assembly and an alternate Youth Representative to the Anchorage Assembly. Both the Youth Representative nominee and the alternate were nominated for six-month terms with a unanimous vote of the body.

The Youth Advisory Commission respectfully requests the appointment of the following youth for confirmation to the assembly. The accompanying assembly memorandums are attached for your convenience.

Youth Representative

Sarah Price

Age: 18

Alternative

Megan Nelson

Age: 17

Sarah Price is valedictorian of Eagle River High School, avid follower of the Anchorage Assembly, and an Eagle River community member. She is currently serving as the president of the Anchorage Youth Court. Her knowledge of local government makes her uniquely qualified to serve as the Youth Representative to the Assembly.

Megan Nelson is an advocate for youth in Anchorage and follower of local government. She is currently serving as a travelling ambassador for TeenPact. Her interest and knowledge of local politics at her age makes her uniquely qualified to serve as the alternate Youth Representative to the Assembly.
