“I believe that once one is capable of providing for his or herself, then he or she is capable of impacting others and creating an environment for them to do the same,” said Leon Kinneeveauk, leader of the Art Alliance. “This is the essence of the partnership between the Alaska Native Heritage Center and the Alaska Art Alliance.”

A partnership between the Alaska Native Heritage Center & the Alaska Art Alliance to drive social change and community healing

ABOUT THE ALASKA ART ALLIANCE:

The Alaska Art Alliance is an Alaska Native-led cultural nonprofit whose mission is to support adults who struggle with addiction, homelessness, and reentry from incarceration; the Alliance provides them a place to work and reconnect with their authentic selves through arts and culture. Artists have firsthand experience with the power of healing through the creative process of making art that is culturally relevant and draws from Native traditions.

This partnership was made possible through generous support from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.
