Subject: AN ORDINANCE OF THE ANCHORAGE ASSEMBLY AMENDING ANCHORAGE MUNICIPAL CODE SECTION 23.95.300 TO ALLOW THE USE OF RELOCATABLE ANCILLARY BUILDINGS AS EMERGENCY SHELTERS FOR PERSONS EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS WHEN THE EMERGENCY SHELTER PLAN IS ACTIVATED.

This ordinance would amend the definition of “relocatable ancillary building” in Anchorage Municipal Code (“AMC”) Section 23.95.300 to allow the Municipality to utilize relocatable buildings for emergency sheltering. Anchorage Municipal Code currently allows relocatable buildings to be used for year-to-year use as classrooms. AMC Chapter 23.95 establishes this category specifically to support Group E occupancy, the use of a building for educational purposes. This use is regulated separately from temporary structures and comes with its own set of requirements. Like the classroom use, if the Municipality were to use relocatable buildings for emergency sheltering, the buildings must undergo building plan review to ensure certain building code requirements relating to fire, building, and life safety concerns are met. Through the expanded definition proposed in this ordinance, relocatable ancillary buildings can support Group R occupancy, or a building that can be used for sleeping purposes.

The proposed use of relocatable buildings for emergency sheltering could only take place during a period when the Municipality has enacted its Emergency Shelter Plan pursuant to Anchorage Municipal Code section 16.120.020. When the Emergency Shelter Plan is activated, only buildings that have undergone the designation process under Title 16 may be utilized. The designation process provides another layer of review by the Anchorage Health Department of the safety and appropriateness of the proposed location, as well as the site’s staffing, plan, and protocols. Title 21 requirements for homeless shelters must also be met, except that emergency shelters designated under Chapter 16.120 may be located in zoning districts where homeless shelters would otherwise be prohibited.

ASD is willing to donate relocatable classroom buildings to the Municipality for sheltering purposes. Only a de minimis amount of staff time and equipment purchases will be required to implement this ordinance. As such, no Summary of Economic Effects is attached to this ordinance.
THE ADMINISTRATION RECOMMENDS APPROVAL.
