Hi Fred.

In order for yesterday’s emergency meeting to be considered legal, all absent Assembly Members must waive, in writing or by email, the required 24-hour notice. Here’s the code section that pertains to Emergency Meetings:

2.30.030 - Meetings.

E. Emergency meetings. In an emergency, a special meeting without notice shall be a legal meeting if all members are present or there is a quorum and all absent members have waived in writing or by email the required notice. The waiver may be either before or after the time of the meeting. The waiver shall be attached to and made a part of the record for that meeting.

Can you please confirm that you waive notice?

Thank you,
