MUNICIPALITY OF ANCHORAGE
MEMORANDUM

M.O.A.

CLERKS OFFICE

DATE: May 22, 2000
To: Assembly Members
FROM: Mayor Rick Rick Mysrom
SUBJECT: Veto of Assembly Motions and Actions Reducing the Applied Fund Balance and Increasing the Areawide General Mill Levy

I am vetoing the motions and actions, passed by a majority of the Assembly, that had the effect of taxing the citizens an additional $2 million in order to increase the Municipality's reserves an additional $2 million.

The Municipality's current available reserves include an $18 million reserve account from the ATU sale, $20 million received last week from the Police and Fire Retirement settlement and more than $22 million in fund balance. This is over $60 million in reserves accessible by Assembly vote. In addition, the Municipality has a trust fund of over $132 million accessible by a vote of the citizens.

I believe it is inappropriate to raise taxes another $2 million for the purpose of increasing accessible reserves from $60 million to $62 million.
