ASSEMBLY MEMORANDUM

No. AM 260-2009

Meeting Date: May 12, 2009

13 The Department of Law is administering an Anti-Gang Initiative Program
14 (Program). The grant partially offsets the cost of the program. The attached 15 resolution appropriates the 2009 grant from State of Alaska, Department of 16 Public Safety, Division of State Troopers and a contribution from 2009
17 Operating Budget of the Department of Law to fund the Program.
18

19 The Anchorage Police Department (APD) documented Anchorage's growing 20 gang problem. APD initiated a five-part program to aggressively prevent and 21 crack down on gang violence. Some of the new police officers added to the 22 force over the last few years are focused on the problem of gangs and related 23 crimes of guns and drugs. However, there is a growing backlog in the Alaska 24 Court System in processing the cases. According to the District Attorney for 25 the State of Alaska, there are more than 2,500 felony cases awaiting 26 disposition in Anchorage, including many gang cases. Delays in processing 27 mean the release of gang members into the community on bail.
28

29 Former U.S. Attorney, now U.S. District Court Judge Timothy Burgess
30 proposed a partnership between the Municipality of Anchorage and the Office 31 of the U. S. Attorney to help combat this problem. At Burgess' invitation, the 32 Municipality assigned the Program to the U.S. Attorney's office. The Program 33 is a staff specially trained in prosecution under federal laws, focusing primarily 34 on gang-related crimes. Gang members prosecuted under federal law typically 35 are processed more quickly, with more severe consequences, than under state law, removing gang members from Anchorage streets.
