19 Whereas, in 2002 Linda earned a letter of appreciation for her assistance during a large 20 downtown condominium fire; and 21

22 Whereas, Linda has been recognized for excellent leadership; and 23

24 Whereas, Linda has been active in National Emergency Communication Organizations; and 25

26 Whereas, Linda has chaired the Employee Recognition Board of the Anchorage Police
27 Department for the last several years, bring much needed and often overlooked recognition to her 28 coworkers; and
29

30 Whereas, Linda has been deeply involved with organizing state-wide conferences that bring
31 representatives from communication centers from all around to Anchorage in order to brainstorm
32 and share knowledge; and 33

34 Whereas, Linda has served as a supervisor in the Emergency Communication Center since 35 January 2003; and

Whereas, Linda has participated in the Anchorage Police Department's Crisis Intervention Team from its inception, delivering much needed assistance to those in crisis and suffering from mental illness and has been recognized for her involvement; and

Whereas, in 2008 Linda received another Chief's Letter of Recognition for her initiative, commitment and dedication to the Anchorage Police Department for creating a forum that brought the Department, Assisted Living Homes and State Agencies together for the purpose of oversight of these care facilities; and

Whereas Linda has always been a bridge builder, reaching out to other agencies and offering assistance and opening channels of communication;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE ANCHORAGE MUNICIPAL ASSEMBLY RECOGNIZES AND HONORS:

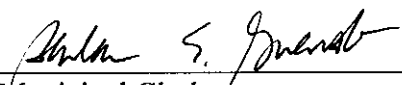

LINDA RODRIGUEZ

for her achievement of 26 years of dedicated and continuing service to the Anchorage Police Department and the citizens of the Municipality of Anchorage.
