Please join us for a fun day of discovery and learning at the Historic Pioneer Schoolhouse. Participants will learn about preservation, restoration, and the best materials to use on historic windows; how to make them workable again; and Secretary of Interior Standards for historic buildings. This workshop is for you if you are contemplating replacing the old windows in your house, but would really like to preserve the historic look and feel your home. Don will also discuss the cost effectiveness and benefits of restoration and preservation.

Don Corwin – Skagway, AK

Don Corwin is the owner of West Wind Woodworking in Skagway, Alaska. He was one of the original members of the National Park Service restoration crew in Skagway in the 1980s, and has since gone on to do specialty restoration and woodworking projects across Alaska and even as far away as Midway Island. Don has been recognized for his work across Alaska and is a true ambassador for historic preservation.

~*100% of the proceeds from the workshop will go directly to the Pioneer Schoolhouse Restoration Fund held by the Anchorage Woman's Club an Alaskan non-profit~
