Exemption Review Process in Anchorage: charitable, religious, non-profit hospital

Step 1: Manual review of exemptions

Step 3: Work with property owner to verify eligibility

For charitable, religious, and non-profit hospital exemptions, the property owner must demonstrate that the property continues to be used exclusively for the stated purpose.

Step 2: Flag exemptions and require “Annual Certification”

Common reasons to flag an exemption for follow-up include incomplete documentation, perceived change in ownership or use, or a report from a concerned citizen.

Step 4: Make a determination and send a letter (if denied)

Sending a denial initiates the appeal process. Charitable, religious, and non-profit hospital exemptions may request an Administrative Review or appeal directly to the Superior Court

An Increase in the Personal Property Exemption

Starting in 2026, the personal property exemption will be $100K

- As a result:
 - Expect to see a reduction in the tax base of less than 1%, approximately $370 million
 - We notified all businesses with active accounts
 - We plan to increase proactive enforcement with the goal of higher compliance

Valuation Notices ("Green Card") and the Appeal Period

This is a notice of the assessed value of your property as of January 1, 2026, for the parcel described on the front of this card.

Your assessed value is based on factors such as size, location, and features. You are encouraged to review your property characteristics to ensure accurate and fair assessments. State law requires you to notify the Assessor of errors or omissions in the assessment or in the name or address on this notice.

You can review your property's description and characteristics at www.muni.org/pa.

If you demonstrate an error or omission, the Assessor may adjust the assessed value and resolve the discrepancy without the need for a formal appeal. Alternatively, you may file an appeal with the Board of Equalization (BOE). Appeals must meet the following criteria:

- File the appeal by the deadline on the front of this card;
- Use the official appeal form (available at City Hall or online); and
- Pay the required filing deposit (refundable under certain circumstances).

BOE hearings begin in March; you will be notified by mail if you appealed your assessment.

The Municipal Assembly is scheduled to levy 2026 property taxes by May 1, 2026. The Municipality of Anchorage will mail tax bills by June 1. Payments are due June 30 (first half) and August 31 (second half). Late payments are subject to penalty and interest.

TAX EXEMPTIONS YOU MAY QUALIFY FOR: Senior Citizen, Disabled Veteran, Residential, Nonprofit, Disaster Relief, etc. For more information, visit www.muni.org/pa or call (907) 343-6770.
