

HHAND Commission Core Values adopted by Commission Members __date__

Name of Commissioners: (to be included)

Here's a concise sampling of core values commonly adopted by city housing commissions or housing authorities, written in a way that works well for bylaws, policy manuals, or public-facing statements:

Equity & Fairness

Ensure all residents have access to safe, affordable housing without discrimination, and actively work to reduce systemic barriers.

Accountability & Transparency

Operate with integrity, fiscal responsibility, and openness in decision-making, ensuring public trust and compliance with laws and regulations.

Resident-Centered Service

Prioritize the dignity, safety, and well-being of residents, valuing their voices in planning, policy development, and service delivery.

Stewardship of Public Resources

Responsibly manage public funds and housing assets to ensure long-term sustainability and maximum community benefit.

Community Collaboration

Engage meaningfully with residents, service providers, nonprofits, and local partners to strengthen housing stability and supportive services.

Safety & Quality of Housing

Commit to maintaining housing that is safe, healthy, and well-maintained, meeting or exceeding applicable standards.

Innovation & Continuous Improvement

Encourage data-informed solutions, adaptability, and best practices to address evolving housing needs.

Ethical Leadership

Uphold high ethical standards, avoid conflicts of interest, and act in the best interest of the community at all times.
