Assembly Memorandum

No. AM 268 - 2026

Meeting Date: April 14, 2026

From: MAYOR

Subject: AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING AND APPROVING ADOPTION OF PORT OF ALASKA TERMINAL TARIFF NO. 10.3.

In January 2025, the Municipality of Anchorage and Don Young Port of Alaska published the Comprehensive Plan of Finance to outline the financing for the remaining phases of the Port of Alaska Modernization Program (PAMP). Appendix 4 of the Comprehensive Plan of Finance provides the timeline for annual review of the tariff surcharge amounts set forth in Tariff 10.1, Section 2, Item 272, with review occurring by August 31 for an effective date of January 1 of the following year.

Since 2024, the Anchorage Assembly has approved a series of actions related to Item 272. On September 24, 2024, the Assembly approved AO 2024-85, which amended the tariff approval process to authorize Assembly approval of changes to Item 272. The Assembly then approved AO 2024-98(S), adopting Port of Alaska Terminal Tariff No. 10.1, effective January 1, 2025, and later approved AO 2025-99, adopting Port of Alaska Terminal Tariff No. 10.2, effective January 1, 2026, with each action updating the PAMP surcharge to reflect then-current financing requirements.

This proposed change to Port of Alaska Terminal Tariff No. 10.3, Section 2, Item 272, will modify the existing PAMP surcharge, as depicted below, to provide the revenue required for Port financing issued in support of the PAMP, while continuing to provide required debt service coverage for outstanding Port revenue bonds and related financing obligations. This new tariff is proposed with an effective date of January 1, 2027.

1 The proposed increases are smaller than those projected in the PAMP Plan of
2 Finance that is currently posted on the Port's website because the administration
3 is now proposing to sell revenue bonds to provide the Port with approximately one
4 year of new money for PAMP expenditures, rather than two years of new money.
5 Public finance has advised that smaller, annual debt issuances: (1) may be
6 somewhat easier for the marketplace and investors to absorb; (2) will result in a
7 gentler ramp up in required PAMP Surcharge amounts; and (3) provides the 8 Municipality with more time to find other, less expensive sources of funds for the 9 PAMP prior to committing to larger dollar amounts of debt sold every two years.

10
11 Except as revised in Section 2, Item 272, all other rates and provisions of Terminal
12 Tariff 10.2 remain unchanged.

PUBLIC SECTOR ECONOMIC EFFECTS:

This ordinance adopts Port of Alaska Terminal Tariff No. 10.3 and updates Section 2, Item 272, Port of Alaska Modernization Program surcharge, to provide the revenues required in connection with the proposed 2026 Port Revenue Bond sale. The proposed surcharge rates are intended to produce sufficient revenues to satisfy debt service obligations, meet the 1.35x rate covenant coverage requirement, and support related financing obligations associated with the proposed 2026 Port Revenue Bonds. The Revenue Bond Resolution for the proposed 2026 Port Revenue Bonds is traveling in tandem with this Assembly Ordinance. The ordinance does not directly create new positions or increase operating expense.

PRIVATE SECTOR ECONOMIC EFFECTS:

The proposed revision to Section 2, Item 272 may increase costs to Port users subject to the surcharge, and a portion of those costs may be passed through to customers or end users. The revised surcharge rates are proposed to support the revenues required for the proposed 2026 Port Revenue Bonds and related financing obligations.

ENVIRONMENTAL PARAMETERS (Continued) DEPTH OF WATER The waters of the Cook Inlet are heavily loaded with silts and sediments that originate from the numerous glacially fed rivers and streams that empty into the Inlet. Two glacial rivers, the Knik and Matanuska, feed the Knik Arm of the Cook Inlet near the Port. The US Army Corps of Engineers maintains the navigation channels to the Port through an annual dredging program with the following goals: - Federally authorized depth at the dock face: -35 feet MLLW - Federally authorized depth at the Knik Arm Navigation Channel: -38 feet MLLW Seasonal shoaling and sedimentation are likely. Dredging operations are conducted in the ice-free months and depth information is regularly updated. Vessels are advised to contact the US Army Corps of Engineers, Alaska District Civil Works Division for the latest soundings on Knik Arm Navigation Channel and alongside the dock, and closely coordinate operations with the tide cycles paying special attention to low or minus tides. WINTER USE OF THE PORT The Port is open year-round. However, extreme temperatures, winter siltation, and ice provide a number of challenges during the winter months. Ice in the navigation channel and at the berths can cause difficulty in maneuvering and can exert unusually high mooring line forces. Winter siltation may cause decreases in available draft. Machinery, including fuel systems, cooling systems, winches, anchors, ballast water systems, and other auxiliary systems must be winterized and maintained in a state for use in the extreme environment. Tug assistance aids in mitigating these conditions. The US Coast Guard (USCG) Captain of the Port (COTP) has published operating guidelines for ice conditions in Cook Inlet. Copies of this document are available from the USCG. NOTE: SECTION 1, PART 5, PARAGRAPH 1 APPLIES IN FULL.	130

All people entering the Port must have government issued photo ID and be prepared to pass through a security screening facility. (b) An approved Berthing Reservation and, only if required by the Port Director, prepaid dockage must be received by the Port a minimum of 48 hours prior to scheduled vessel arrival. (c) If required by the Port Director, full dockage fees will be paid to the Port at the time of reservation. Prepaid dockage fees will be non-refundable unless a written cancellation is received by the Port a minimum of 48 hours prior to scheduled vessel arrival. (d) Vessels that dock at berths without prior-approved reservations do not have berthing privileges or priority and must vacate the berth to accommodate a vessel with a valid reservation if directed to do so. The operator or agent shall complete a berthing reservation immediately after docking. (e) VESSELS REQUIRED TO VACATE BERTHS: With the Port Director's approval, vessels may occupy a berth, subject to charges named in Section 2, provided such vessel shall vacate the berth upon direction of the Port Director.
