The Projects currently qualify for up to 70% State debt reimbursement of the issuance (subject to annual Legislative appropriation as described below).

The general obligation bond proceeds will be used to pay the cost of planning, design, site preparation, constructing, renovating, installing, acquiring and equipping educational capital improvement projects including, but not limited to, renewals, replacements, and renovations of electrical and mechanical systems, building systems, and sites, undertaking planning and design projects, and constructing, expanding and renovating Airport Heights Elementary School.
