The MOA recognizes the right of a union to discipline members for violation of any union laws, rules or agreements. The Employer agrees that it will not in any manner, directly or indirectly, attempt to interfere between any employees and the Union, and that it will not in any manner restrain or attempt to restrain any employee from belonging to the Union or from taking an active part in union affairs, and that it will not discriminate against any employee because of union membership or lawful union activity. No worker shall be discriminated against for upholding union principles or for serving on a committee and he shall not lose his position or be discriminated against for this reason. Any employee appointed or elected to office in the union which requires all of his time shall not lose his established seniority with the MOA (seniority frozen) and shall be granted a leave of absence without pay for the duration of his term of office upon application. The MOA need not preserve the employee's position and will be obligated to return the employee only to a position in the department in which the employee was employed which is vacant and equal to or less than the position, which the employee vacated, and for which the employee is qualified. The right to return to a vacant position shall last for one (1) year from the commencement of the leave and shall be subordinate to any employment preference applicable to the position.

The parties agree that it shall be a condition of continued employment that all employees of the MOA who are covered by this Agreement who are members in good standing of the Union shall remain members in good standing and that those employees of the MOA who are covered by this Agreement who are not members in good standing of the Union shall become and thereafter remain members in good standing of the Union on or before the thirty-first (31st) calendar day following the date of the employee's employment by the MOA or the effective date of this Agreement, whichever occurs later.
- B. The request must be delivered to the MOA Director of Employee Relations or his designee, must state that the employee has failed to meet the membership requirements of this article 2.11.2, Union Security, and must request that the employee's employment be terminated.
- C. The Union agrees to indemnify, defend and save the MOA and its officers, agents and employees harmless from any liability or loss arising out of or in any way connected with termination of the employee's employment pursuant to the Union's written request. The forms being used by the parties on the effective date of this Agreement are approved. The MOA shall forward such dues and initiation fees to the Union by the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the month in which said dues are checked off. The MOA shall use reasonable care in checking off and forwarding said dues and initiation fees, but shall not be liable for any failure to do so other than an intentional, bad faith failure to forward said dues and initiation fees. The Union assumes all obligations and responsibility for the continued membership of its members and the collection of their dues.

Article 2.11.4 Stewards

The Union may appoint such stewards as are set forth below. All stewards shall be working stewards. As scheduled by management, a steward may spend a reasonable amount of time during working hours attending to union business within the department. For these duties the shop steward's wages will be borne by the MOA and the hours worked in this capacity will be counted as hours worked for determining overtime eligibility. Stewards must document the time spent on union business on their timecards. Where there is more than one shop steward in a location, the Union shall designate one steward as lead.

Recognized Stewards as listed:

Article 2.11.5 Visits to Employer Work Locations

Non-employee Union representatives may visit only those MOA facilities or work locations occupied by employees, which the Union represents, and only on official business. Only union business representatives may visit MOA property during working hours. Non-employee Union representatives may not visit such locations in connection with union elections or other internal union affairs. With regard to each visit, the Union must provide the department/agency head, or designee, which controls the location with reasonable advance notice (not less than one (1) hour) of an intent to visit and the notice must specify the reason for the visit. The visit may not interrupt, distract or interfere with the work of employees. The department/agency head may refuse to consent to the visit if it would unduly interfere with the work of employees or activities of the department or agency, or terminate the visit if it interferes with the work of employees or activities of the department or agency. If the visit is refused, the department/agency head must reschedule the visit at the earliest convenient time. Union representatives may conduct meetings on MOA premises only with the consent of the department/agency head and only with regard to official business affecting the MOA, its employees and the union. Union representatives may conduct meetings of MOA employees during employee working time only with the express consent of the department/agency head whose employees would be affected.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 71

Article 2.11.6 Jurisdictional Disputes

Disputes which arise between the Union and another Municipal union concerning representation of employees may be presented by the Union(s) to the Employee Relations Board for resolution.

Article 2.11.7 Administrative Notification

The Union shall be notified in writing of any Municipal directive, memorandum, rule or regulation which cover or affect areas covered by this Agreement or which affect any group of employees working under this Agreement. The Union business representative shall be given adequate notice by the MOA prior to the time that any committee defined by this Agreement is convened.

Article 2.11.8 Bulletin Boards

The MOA shall provide bulletin boards and/or space on existing bulletin boards as reasonably requested by the Union.

Article 2.11.9 Union Business Leave Bank

A. There is created a Union Business Leave Bank which shall be administered by the MOA with a report of the balance and withdrawals provided to the Union Business Manager upon request. The Bank shall be established by a transfer of two (2) hours of cashable annual leave from each regular employee by the MOA on the second full pay period in January of each year; seasonal employees shall transfer one (1) hour of cashable leave for each season worked not to exceed two (2) hours per calendar year, and this will occur on the second pay period following hire. The Bank will be capped at 1200 hours. Time off on Union leave for negotiation purposes shall count as hours worked for the purpose of determining overtime eligibility within the workweek.

Withdrawal requests from the Bank will be for purposes of contract negotiations, executive meetings, training sponsored by the Union, and other purposes as may be determined by the Business Manager. Requests for withdrawals from the Bank shall be made only by the Business Manager of the Union or designee to the Employee Relations Director on the Municipal Request for Leave Form. Cashable annual leave transferred to the Bank is final and not recoverable for re-credit to an employee's leave account.

B. The release of employees for Union leave from duty shall be handled on the same basis as release from duty for personal leave, however, such release shall not be unreasonable withheld by the supervisor.

C. Shop Stewards may be granted leave without pay, not to exceed two (2) days each year for training purposes with prior approval of the department and the Employee Relations Director.

D. During the course of this Agreement, the Union may make a one-time purchase of Union Business Leave hours, not to exceed 300 hours, at an agreed-upon rate of $18.19 per hour.

Article 2.12 Productivity

The overriding consideration in the establishment of productivity standards is an honest day's work for an honest day's pay. Since the issue of assuring the community that they are receiving the best services for their tax dollars is of critical interest to both management and labor, labor recognizes that the establishment of such productivity improvements is the right and obligation of management. The Union will be informed in advance of any proposed change in productivity standards and given the opportunity to discuss the proposed change(s) with the MOA prior to implementation.

Maximized productivity is recognized to be a mutual obligation of both parties within their respective roles and responsibilities. Work procedures, schedules and assignments or any other means of increasing productivity may be established and/or revised from time to time at the discretion of the Municipality so long as no right guaranteed employees under this Agreement is violated.

Article 2.13 Contracting Out

For the purposes of this Article, "contracting out" shall mean the procurement of goods and/or services by the MOA or any agency thereof from sources other than municipal employees. The Union recognizes that the Municipality has statutory and charter rights and obligations in contracting for matters relating to Municipal operations. The right of contracting or subcontracting is vested in the Municipality. The right to contract or subcontract shall not be used for the purpose or intention of undermining the Union nor to discriminate against any of its members. The Municipality further agrees that it will not lay off any employees of an agency, who have completed their probationary periods and have regular employee status, because of the exercise of its contracting or subcontracting rights within that agency, unless as the result of a contract approved by the Assembly under the Municipal Managed Competition Program ("Program") dated September, 2013 or a substantially similar Municipal Managed Competition Program. Regular employees laid off as a result of the Program shall be paid a lump sum severance benefit of forty (40) hours of the employee's factored rate pay for every year of service if at least one (1) year of service has been completed at the time of lay-off. Severance pay will not exceed four hundred (400) hours.

Article 2.14 Meet and Confer

The parties agree that they will meet and confer in good faith at reasonable times and places concerning this Agreement and its interpretation or any other matter of mutual concern to employee representatives and the MOA. The parties further agree that any party to this Agreement may request, in writing delivered to the other party, that the parties confer within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date of delivery of the request, which shall specify the matter to be discussed. Union requests to meet and confer shall be delivered to the MOA Director of Employee Relations. MOA requests to meet and confer shall be directed to the Union. The Union and the MOA Director of Employee Relations may designate who their respective representatives shall be at the meet and confer sessions. A refusal to meet and confer in response to such request shall be a violation of this Agreement. There shall be no obligation on the part of any party to reopen, modify, amend, or otherwise alter the terminology or interpretation of this Agreement, or to make any other agreement as a result of any such conferences, nor shall the requirement for such conferences alter the rights or obligations of the parties under this Agreement. The parties recognize that the success of the MOA in conducting the affairs of government and the job security of MOA employees and effective administration of this Agreement depends upon mutual cooperation and frequent and effective communication among all parties. To these ends, the MOA and the Union fully encourage and pledge themselves to friendly and cooperative relations at all levels and among all employees, whether or not covered by this Agreement.

In no case shall past practices be relied upon by the arbitrator to alter an unambiguous provision of the Agreement.
